Request Detail

I request access to information covering:

Please could you provide any and all information regarding the forthcoming International Association of Scientologists event, to be held at Saint Hill near East Grinstead by the Church of Scientology. I am interested to know if they have submitted a Temporary Event Notice, whether a Premises Licence has been granted, who the Designated Premises Supervisor is for the event, and any conditions attached to the licence. I would also like to know whether any meetings or communication has taken place between Scientology and the Council with regard to the event, and whether any concerns were raised by the local authority or other interested parties. The event is being publicised as set to take place 3rd - 5th November 2023, and usually involves the construction of a temporary structure on private property, the provision of food and alcohol to thousands of Scientologists. I would also like to know what (if any) security or other precautions have been put in place with regard to this event. Many thanks

If you are making a request on behalf of a company or organisation, please state the name of the company/organisation below:

Church of Scientology

Return Method

How would you like the Council to provide the information that you are requesting?

I wish to inspect the information

Any further information

The Church of Scientology operates through a number of UK shell companies, primarily the Church of Scientology Religious Education College, Inc, which is registered in Australia for tax purposes, but operates solely in the United Kingdom
