Good morning, [REDACTED]

Thank you for sending this back to me so promptly.

I have countersigned and requested that a copy be posted back to you, first class.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

>Thank you for confirming. I had assumed this would be ok but thought it might be helpful to mention as I will need to print copies for archiving purposes anyway. I can do this upon return and will then send the final version to you by post.

>>Apologies, I was recalling your email as thought it might be easier for you to sign a paper copy, so I was planning to post printed versions to you tomorrow.

>>Please let me know if you are happy to proceed with an online copy, which you can print and sign yourself before sending back to me, or if you would prefer printed copies to be sent out for signing and return.
