Good afternoon, [REDACTED]

Our Senior Highway Steward reattended the site this afternoon and, following three trial holes, has confirmed that all required items have been removed. Thank you for your assistance with this.

We will now proceed with your Planting Licence application. Our Tree Team will be in contact shortly to confirm the conditions of the licence, which the Church of Scientology will be required to comply with. This will include details regarding plant species, location, and ongoing maintenance, as previously discussed.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

I hope you had a lovely time on annual leave. I appreciate your in-box has most likely been inundated during your absence, so I wanted to send you a fresh email to let you know that the roots were all removed.

Could you let me know when to expect an inspector to pop around to verify this?
